

please keep the do not call registry in place, for people like myself who are full time caregivers of loveones with developemental disabilities and other serious medical condition. Before this registry we were constantly interrupted and desturbed by these unnessecary calls.